

CAROL ANGEL BIO

Dr. Carol Hull-Jackson (Carol Angel) is an award-winning Christian contemporary singer/songwriter. She is also an ordained pastor under Churches in Communities International. Coming from a rich musical and Caribbean heritage, she has ministered in Barbados, St. Vincent, U.S.A, U.K and Singapore. She has also coordinated and taught worship, songwriting and vocal seminars; co-hosted the “Worship Life” radio program on Life97.5FM Barbados and she enjoys writing devotionals for her blog - sisterzkeeper.com. Along with ministry, Carol has a doctorate in public health and is an accomplished researcher, scientific author and lecturer.

In July 2013 she released her debut album “The Difference” which received excellent reviews and rotation on FM and digital radio stations internationally. In 2015 and 2016 she received several nominations at the Barbados Flame Awards and in 2017 was awarded the “songwriter of the year”. Carol has written for other well-known Barbadian gospel ministers and is the cofounder of Life shift records (lifeshiftrecords.com)

On November 29th 2019 she released her second album “New Things” in Singapore. This was preceded by the video release of “My Salvation” on October 8th. “New Things” celebrates how the Lord lovingly re-writes our story and leads us into new seasons in Him. The album is currently nominated for international awards in several categories and promises to launch this seasoned and dynamic worship minister on a wider platform.

Carol’s ministry comes a deep desire to bring healing and edification and her ministry is described as biblically grounded, powerful and refreshing. Her albums can be streamed on all platforms and purchase links are available on lifeshiftrecords.com.
